Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Saturday 02 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold dry and sunny.

Today:
A largely dry and cold day with plenty of sunshine. Just the outside chance of an isolated light shower across the isles during the morning. Light to moderate northerly winds. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry evening and night with clear skies and light north becoming northeast winds. This will allow temperatures to fall away quickly with a widespread sharp frost. Minimum temperature -7 deg C (19 deg F).

Sunday:
A cold frosty start leading to a mostly dry day. Patchy cloud will increase from the east through the day, perhaps the odd light shower in the central belt. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining cold and dry with good sunny spells. Light winds will allow for sharp overnight frosts.
